

SINGAPORE TURF CLUB MEETING PREVIEW

Friday August 16, 2019

A mixed surface eight-race card from Singapore on Friday and while there are some competitive turf races on offer, it is a Kranji C Poly event over 1700m (race 7) that is the most interesting.

What makes it fascinating is the fact that most of the horses are from sires or mares that raced in the United States, including the likely favourite in WOLF WARRIOR who ticks both those boxes.

Michael Rodd doesn't have a lot of rides on Friday but the affable Aussie hoop will be hoping WOLF WARRIOR (race 7) can add a win to his 2019 tally.

The Midnight Lite 4YO has three wins and three close-up placing's from just seven starts on the all-weather track and not surprisingly given his 'dirt' breeding, he is yet to place at five turf starts.

The danger could be the only other horse with direct US-bloodlines on both the sire and mare side in TARGET.

A 6YO by War Front, TARGET won three-in-a-row last year over this trip and track and given he has had two sighters this preparation over unsuitable sprint distances, he is the improver with Benny Woodworth up.

Elsewhere on the card, SUN SNIPER had support and ran on well enough over 1200m at his Singapore debut to think he will be hard to hold out over a more suitable 1400m trip in race 6 with Vlad Duric retaining the ride.

Lee Freedman continues to bring in progressive raced horses from Australia and SUN SNIPER will go close to opening his Singapore account in race 4.

Ricky Le Grange has two good each-way hopes in race 7 with MIGHTY EMPEROR and MAJESTIC EMPRESS.

SINGAPORE TURF CLUB MEETING PREVIEW

Friday August 16, 2019

RACE 1: CLASS 5 (1) - 1400M COURSE D (SC) (TURF TRACK) TIME: 18:50 PRIZE MONEY: S$30000

Larry says, "A solid Class 5 to open the meeting and it may pay to follow some of the leading hoops with Vlad Duric and Michael Rodd on ROYAL PAVILION and KRANJI GOLD respectively. ROYAL PAVILION is first up after breaking his maiden status in this grade at his last start and he can win again on the back of a good trial. KRANJI GOLD changed stables and dropped in grade last start and showed enough to think he wins a race like this sooner than later. Plenty of depth to this race and the likes of LOOKS GOOD and GOLDEN THUNDER both placed last start and should figure here, while BASILIK will improve lengths back on the turf over his favourite trip. Keep the maiden BORN TO WIN safe as he will appreciate Class 5 Company and has shown enough to consider with blinkers added. Betting Strategy - BORN TO WIN each-way."

RACE 2: OPEN MAIDEN (WEIGHT FOR AGE) - 1100M (POLYTRACK) TIME: 19:20 PRIZE MONEY: S$20000

Larry says, "The market is going to be a terrific guide to this Restricted Maiden as two of the fancies are resuming after issues at their respective last starts, with a handy newcomer also in the mix. The newcomer in question is COMING THROUGH who looked to trial good enough locally to consider seriously on debut, while another debutante in VICTORY JOY also showed enough at the trials to include somewhere. The two horses resuming are EASY SOUTH EAST who did it tough last start and returned with heat stress but can win on good form prior, while KADIMA flopped on debut but did return a roarer and he showed promise at the trials and may be value. The horse that may beat them all is GOLDEN KID who has recent good race form to his name and probably starts favourite with Simon Kok to ride. Betting Strategy - EASY SOUTH EAST win, saver on KADIMA."

RACE 3: CLASS 4 (1) - 1100M (POLYTRACK) TIME: 19:50 PRIZE MONEY: S$50000

Larry says, "A Class 4 of little depth but given the erratic form of most of the fancies, a tough one for punters. SOLDADO did win last start (after a run of unplaced efforts) and with a handy Simon Kok 3kg claim, he carries the same weight and looks the benchmark from gate 1. LIM'S SHOT had no excuses last start but has ability, comes into this with a nice trial under his belt and can win back on the Poly. Likewise, LIM'S PASSION comes off a shocker (as the odds on pop) and is back in trip but has ability and could atone. COUNTRY BOSS won by six lengths two back and was beaten by 17 lengths last start so play with care, while JUSTICE LIGHT has two good recent runs to his name so should figure in a race that suits. PIONEER SEVEN, NORTHERN SUN for exotics and keep DASH very safe at odds on the back of a good trial. Betting Strategy - LIM'S SHOT each-way."

RACE 4: CLASS 4 (1) - 1400M COURSE D (SC) (TURF TRACK) TIME: 20:20 PRIZE MONEY: S$50000

Larry says, "There looks plenty of early pace in this Class 4 event over 1400m, which should give everyone a chance including SUN SNIPER at his second start in Singapore. The well-bred 4YO won over the mile before arriving and his first up effort over 1200m good enough to suggest he can win this with Duric retaining the ride. LORD OF CLOUD is over due to win and gets his chance. The 5YO hasn't won since October 2018 - which has been disappointing given he looked to be headed to Open Company - but this race suits, as does gate 2 with Simon Kok to ride. BLACK QUAIL and GALILEO'S APPROACH are the two in-form pace influences and if either gets a soft run out front they can win, while OVERCOMING was disappointing last start but looked due prior and he can also race forward so keep safe. Betting Strategy - SUN SNIPER win."

RACE 5: CLASS 5 (2) - 1400M COURSE D (SC) (TURF TRACK) TIME: 20:50 PRIZE MONEY: S$30000

Larry says, "A terrible race to start the Jackpot or Quaddie but hopefully a maiden in LIM'S HONOUR can salute. The 4YO has shown enough in solid Maiden Company to think he wins a race like this and while disappointing last start, he did pull up at lame and gets his chance if right. Nothing else wins without surprising but GANGNAM CLASSIC was ridden positively last start when placing and we can expect another forward showing, while both VENUS DE MILO and WILDFIRE have recent placings to their names and should figure if having good day. Blanket over the rest and go as wide as the budget permits in exotics. Betting Strategy - LIM'S HONOUR win."

RACE 6: CLASS 4 (2) - 1400M COURSE D (SC) (TURF TRACK) TIME: 21:20 PRIZE MONEY: S$50000

Larry says, "Another tricky race for punters with a newcomer from Ireland in BUDDY BUDDY worthy of consideration, while STREET PARTY will find this easier than the Group 1 Guineas. In fact STREET PARTY did look due in this company prior to his Guineas run and given he was never really involved on that occasion from a wide gate, he gets his chance back in trip from gate 3 with 'buckets' Moor to ride. BUDDY BUDDY raced as Red Label in the UK and while his two wins were over a tad longer, 1400m looks ideal at his Singapore debut and his local trials good enough to give this a shake. It's not a race in two by any means with GREEN STAR in very honest form and looks the benchmark, while RAPIDASH can step up from Maiden Company and play a part in this finish. Betting Strategy - STREET PARTY each-way."

RACE 7: KRANJI STAKES C (SET WEIGHTS) - 1700M (POLYTRACK) TIME: 21:50 PRIZE MONEY: S$70000

Larry says, "Some Poly specialists are the horses to follow in this Kranji Stakes C and none go better on the all-weather (as opposed to the turf) than WOLF WARRIOR. The US-bred 4YO has had three wins and three close-up placings from his seven Poly starts but remarkably has yet to run a drum on the turf from five starts; Michael Rodd stays on-board and he could be hard to hold out. The interesting runner is TARGET - also a US-bred - who runs over a suitable trip after two sighters over shorter distances and he can go forward and give a sight with senior hoop Benny Woodworth a factor. Ricky Le Grange always seems to have a say in races like this and he saddles MIGHTY EMPEROR and MAJESTIC EMPRESS who both look suited this trip and track and both win without surprising. RACE 8: CLASS 4 (2) - 1100M (POLYTRACK) TIME: 22:20 PRIZE MONEY: S$50000

Larry says, "Another tough race for punters to close the meeting but while we will have a look at a few of the Class droppers on the night, LIM'S KNIGHT is due and should be able to overcome the wide gate and win. The 7YO kept a handy winner honest last start with Benny Woodworth up and with the in-form hoop retaining the ride, he must go close. Two others horses that are in form in Class 4 are YULONG FAST SPEED and SUPER WIN and both are honest enough to figure in this finish with just 53kg apiece. The two Class droppers in question are RED DAWN and SIERRA CONQUEROR who both can improve dramatically on poor recent form in a race that suits with market a good guide. 8	32*63	Super Win		B, TT	M Kellady	Hw Tan	7	53	53.0		6.00
May need it easier to win but in very honest form and should figure in the finish.
9	23745	Yulong Fast Steed		B	D Moor	J Peters	4	53	53.0		5.00
Had excuses from wide gate last start and gets his chance from barrier 4 to turn some good form into a win.
10	8900*	Flying Yellow		B, TT	App T Krisna-3	Ct Kuah	2	51	52.0	*	100
Back in trip and struggling.
11	*4339	Hidden Promise			Mm Firdaus-1	M Walker	11	50	51.5		8.00
Nothing over the mile last start but was due prior over sprint trips. Gate could test.
12	9*00*	Lim's Rhythm		BP, TT	App M Nizar-4	M Walker	12	49	51.0	*	50
Needs turf, easier and longer.
13	50000	Mon Energy		E1	App R Iskandar-3	Ky Young	14	49	51.0	*	100
Form terrible.
14	8*3*9	Elite Saint		E2, TT, SR	App Ck Ng-3	J Tan	1	48	50.5	*	33
Gate 1 helps and placed two back but like to see in easier company.
