EAGLE FARM on Saturday 23rd July, 2005

Meeting Summary

Good open meeting today and likely to be good value in some races.

Best Bets: Race 3 # 1 Imprisoned; Race 6 # 5 Princess Margaret; Race 8 # 16 Colin's Party

Race Summary

Scratchings of 9 & 14 have knocked the depth of this race around. Still inclined to take Countess Bathory on though, owing to her poor record this far into a prep. Navarro went very well last time and it is no disadvantage for her dropping back to 1400m (especially from Gate 2). Diagon Duchess loomed up to win last time but no surprise ran out of steam. Fitter and drawn to enjoy a soft run near the lead. Tycoon Rose hasn't won for a long time, but is going very well at present and this is easier than last week. Rough hopes to Sea Artist, Secret Stash.

SUMMARY: Should be some value here with the fav likely to be short. 2 & 7 the top picks.

Race Summary

Imprisoned has the pace to lead if they desire. Learned Leo is another to ensure this is a strongly run race. Imprisoned should have a class edge on these. Who is a proven weight carrier in the past, and very few horses can win from the outside gate at the EF 1000m as he did last time. Hard To Catch has to back up from his good win last week, but is going very well. Buran's first run in Australia was very good and can race well, as can Front Door, who had no luck last time.

SUMMARY: Imprisoned should be too fast and too good.

Poor betting race. A lot of queries here, not the least being Cool Scene under the 59. He is a promising horse and has beaten most of these previously. Socialist, Nik Nak Noee and Sequestrate are all genuine improvers, while Street Smart just can't take a trick with barrier draws.

Race Summary

Very moderate race with many winning chances. Copper Penny rates best at present, with his good win under a big weight at Doomben. Has performed well this T in the past and is drawn to advantage. Fastness can reel off some strong late sectionals and the big field should generate enough pace for him here. Not A Blunder is coming along nicely and looks ready for the 1600m. Jade City is a query because he jumps up quickly in D. Chances also to Ebony Lad, Hamah, High Octave and Tom Kitten.

SUMMARY: Copper Penny and Fastness the top 2, but this is tricky and be sure to look for any value in all rated runners.

Race Summary

Princess Margaret can just bounce into the box seat and either lead or take a sit if something wants to go with her. She just keeps winning and connections have picked a nice target for her to debut in town. Legcapa, who was beaten 4.2L by her last time, got within 0.3L in similar grade at Dmbn last week so everything points to Princess Margaret being too good. Dangers can include Maxy Legs (not much luck last week, but query this T), Zoobini (good winner on wet LS) and Carry On Meroo, who is one of the few with upside here.

SUMMARY: Scratchings have ruined the market, but Princess Margaret should be too good for this lot.

Race Summary

Nice open race here. As ratings would indicate, think there are close enough to a dozen chances here. Terrace on top. He is much better weighted today and run last time was ok. Better draw means he should be closer in the run. Best value could be Just Polite, who possesses a strong finish when on song. Imperialism can easily measure up and seems good value at his morning quote. Consular just keeps stepping up and can never be ruled out. Think Gordo can improve sharply.

SUMMARY: Very tricky, but should be some value. 7,13,6 the principal hopes, but could easily be good value in other rated runners.

Race Summary

Nice open race to finish the day. Should be good even pace with Brosero and Murray Downs going forward. Colin's Party will have to get back to near last in the run, but he is very promising and is capable of running over all of them in the straight. Murray Downs got the job done 2 weeks back and should work across again from the tricky gate. There seems to be a set against him, so odds should satisfy. Other hopes include Loughnan (ok last time), Brosero (up in grade) and Tropical Express (tough run 1st up on heavy). Smart And Mighty the blowout.

SUMMARY: Keen on Colin's Party and Murray Downs. Be wary of Smart And Mighty if he gets to really silly odds.
